Brentano Welcomes Spring with Colorful Collection

Cornerstone adds new stripes and a velvet with the largest color line to date

Wheeling, IL. (March 2015) — Always a color leader, Brentano welcomes spring with a colorful collection of 21 textiles for residential, hospitality and contract interiors. The new spring 2016 Cornerstone collection embraces color with an artful stripe, Regalia, available in eight colorways, and the 39 beautiful colorways of Gem, a cotton velvet. Both offer designers rich, saturated colors with lustrous materials and contract-level abrasion resistance.

“We’ve spent the last year reflecting on our direction and look, and this year we’re laying a new cornerstone with products that represent what we do best at Brentano. People love our colors, and you’ll find several color-driven patterns in this collection: stripes like Regalia and a new cotton velvet [Gem] with our largest color line to date — 39 colorways!” said Design Director Iris Wang.
