FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

COMBAT WIPES PRESENTS THE UNIQUE BLACK FABRIC COMMANDO WIPES

COMBAT WIPES™ presents its COMMANDO BLACK WIPES which are UNIQUE in the market. The COMMANDO BLACK WIPES fit your camouflage needs while keeping you fresh and clean. These wipes are essential for ANYONE experiencing the outdoors and who does not have access to fresh water yet wants to stay clean and refreshed.

"Throughout my military service I searched for a product which would help me freshen up in the field without contaminating the environment and without baby scent and lotion. I didn't find the right products, so a few years later I decided to create them to support people like me in the field, hunting, in military service, or enjoying the great outdoors." Combat Wipes Founder and CEO

COMBAT WIPES is a veteran-owned outdoor hygiene company that produces 100% biodegradable wet wipes. Its eco-friendly, cleansing and refreshing wipes are alcohol free and packed with aloe and vitamin E for complete skin protection.

COMBAT WIPES offer high-quality products with compact packaging, a unique texture and formula, and a well-thought easy-to-use single-wipe pull-out.

For outdoor activities, military operations, hunting, fishing, hiking, biking, camping, climbing, boating, cycling, and more, COMBAT WIPES products have all your hygiene needs covered and are completely safe for your skin and for the environment. After usage, just bury COMBAT WIPES in the ground and they will disintegrate back into the earth within three months!

COMBAT WIPES products are available at retail price starting at $7.30.

Come visit us in booth #61705 at the Pop-Up Preview SHOT Show, January 22nd, 2020.
